MOTORING HUMOR 😊

1. A man telephoned a police station to say that thieves had tampered with his car and had stolen the steering wheel, the dash board, brake pedal, the clutch, the accelerator and the gear lever. The police promised to investigate. A few minutes later the same man, who was obviously drunk, phoned again to say that he was sorry but he had got in to the back seat by mistake.
2. Why was Mr. Bean fighting with the man sitting in front of him on the bike? For the Window Seat !!!
